WAITING

Waiting means you can’t do something or have something straight away.

Everyone has to wait sometimes.

When you are asked to wait you can:

- take deep breaths
- keep your body still
- keep your voice quiet
- ask for something quiet to do

When you wait quietly other people appreciate it and your body and mind will feel relaxed.

When the person finishes you can
- ask for help
- have a turn